PREFACE

In presenting to the public this book on STEAKS, CHOPS AND FANCY EGG DISHES we feel that we are presenting the most complete authoritative and up-to-date book ever prepared on the subject. The contributors being the finest chefs in the United States, Canada and Europe insure every recipe shown as right. These world-famous chefs have given us their special recipes, and they have made the explanations so plain and so complete that any one can readily understand them.

The great chefs who have prepared these recipes for us have all made cooking their life work and have been apprenticed under the finest and most practical teachers in the culinary lines in this country and abroad.

A large portion of the copy has been translated from the French. The finest chefs are generally the French or Swiss. They are not literary men; their language is not flowery, but we know that even with the difficulty that exists in expressing in English many of the French terms that the work as a whole will be easily understood and greatly appreciated.

This is the first time in history that such a wonderful collection of recipes have been made obtainable for general use. These men are giving, in these recipes, their "professional secrets." The calibre of the men who have prepared these recipes is great and represents as much as the great masters in other lines of the world's work. Napoleon Bonaparte was a great general; Shakespeare, a great author; George Washington, a wonderful statesman; and Thomas Edison, a masterful inventor;—but we feel that the master chefs represented here are to be considered just as great and doing just as much of the world's work as any of the famous men we have all been taught to revere and respect.

The International Cooking Library, covering in twelve volumes every conceivable part, section or angle of the cooking question, makes it possible for any one who will follow these recipes to be an expert cook. The great masters who have prepared these recipes have spent their lives studying and experimenting and are giving in these recipes their best ideas and suggestions. These are dishes of the millionaires and the most particular epicureans.

We feel that this set of books is presented to the public at just the opportune time. All people are beginning to realize that there is really no more important art than cooking and this should be so; for what should be considered more important than what we eat? The best health insurance is having the right kind of foods, properly prepared. A man is at his best only when he is in robust health and nothing will undermine a person's constitution so quickly as poor food. The best dishes and the sure and absolute recipes for making them, are contained in this wonderful set of books. All the copy is from authorities just as positive and just as sure in this line as the noted Blackstone was on legal lines. We picked the best chefs in the world; we would accept copy from no others.

A careful study of the recipes and careful application of the directions for same is all that is necessary to produce the results that have made these men famous.

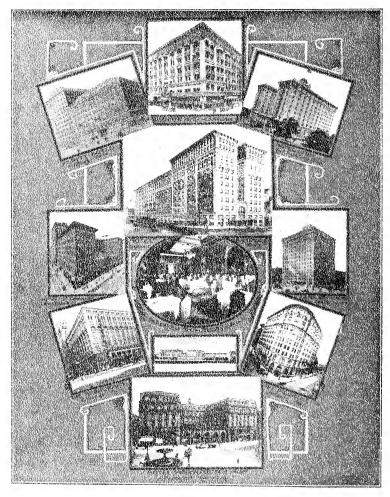

In the presentation of this book, we wish only that space would allow us to mention and pay courtesy to the many men who have assisted us in the various departments, copy preparation, translation, and editing, also the courtesies rendered by the managers of the world renowned hotels whose chefs have been our contributors.

VICTOR HIRTZLER CHEF DE CUISINE HOTEL ST. FRANCIS San Francisco, Cal.

Mr. Hirtzler was born in Strasbourg, Alsace, Germany, and learned his profession under Emile Feypell in Strasbourg who is considered one of the finest Chefs in France. Mr. Hirtzler has been in the best hotels in France and Germany. Coming to the United States he started in at the Old Brunswick in New York City, and then at the Waldorf Astoria, New York City, then at Sherry's famous Cafe, New York City. He came to San Francisco to open the Hotel St. Francisin 1904.

EGGS LEAVEY

Poach eggs carefully. Place on buttered toast, with chicken hash with peppers on one side and asparagus tips on the other. Pour hot Hollandaise sauce over the egg.

EGGS A LA HUEGENOTTE

An omelette in which is folded a minced meat made of mutton, mixed with mushrooms, flavored with nutmeg and the grated rind of an orange.

EGGS OPERA

Put the poached egg on a piece of toast of the same size. Pour hot cream sauce over all. Garnish with hot asparagus tips, sprinkle with chopped parsley and place a slice of truffle on top.

EGGS BAKED WITH POTATOES

Prepare some potatoes for baking by cutting off one end so they will stand upright in the oven. When done, scoop out the potato pulp. Put in a spoonful of cream sauce. Break into the opening a raw egg, covering with a bit of the potato which you have mixed with butter. Return to the oven for six to eight minutes. Serve wrapped in folded napkins.

EGG CROQUETTES

Cut eight hard boiled eggs to small bits, seasoning with salt, pepper, grated nutmeg and a half cup of grated Parmesan cheese. Bind together with a cup of cream sauce. Set away to cool. Then shape into croquettes. Dip in flour, then egg mixed with a spoonful of cream, then bread crumbs. Fry in hot lard. Serve on a platter on a bed of tomato sauce.

COLD EGGS EUREKA

Hard boil eggs. Remove yolks and mix with crab salad piled high in the shape of an entire egg. Cover with mayonnaise. Sprinkle with parsley chopped fine.

OMELETTE WITH CUCUMBERS

Slice the cucumbers, dip in flour, then in egg, then in bread crumbs, and fry for four or five minutes until a nice brown, having seasoned them with salt and pepper. Make omelette. Heat a platter. Cover the bottom with hot cream sauce. Put the omelette on this, then lay the fried cucumbers about the omelette.

SCRAMBLED EGGS

Scramble the eggs, using butter. Make thin toast, trim the edges, then place some cooked sweet red pepper on top, then the scrambled egg. If desired, a few slices of truffles may be added as a garnishing.

OMELETTES WITH BANANAS

Beat three eggs with a whisk until quite light. Add a soupspoonful of rich cream and salt. Heat some butter in a pan. Now have some bananas cooked slightly in rich syrup, preserving the fruit whole. It looks best to cut lengthwise. Before folding over the omelette, place the bananas inside. Fold over, bestrew with fine sugar and burn with an omelette iron.

BAKED STEAK EN CASSEROLE

Take a juicy tenderloin steak, cut about two inches thick. Butter an Eastern casserole. Put the steak in this, adding four whole peeled tomatoes on top of the steak, two green peppers, a piece of butter the size of an egg, two tablespoonfuls of tomato catsup, one tablespoonful of Worcestershire sauce, keeping in hot oven until done, the time depending on how the steak is to be served. To have the steak rare takes about twenty minutes. By this time the tomatoes will be thoroughly heated through and done enough to be very tasty, still retaining their shape firmly. If it is desired to have the steak very rare, it would be well to cook the peppers a bit in butter before adding to the steak, as they should be done enough to be soft.

THEIR STEAKS CHOPS& EGG SPECIALTIES

CHAUTEAUBRIAND STEAK

The name is given to the round piece of beef in the middle of a tenderloin—in other words, the tenderest part of the meat. Flatten this tenderloin until it is a little over an inch thick, and broil over charcoal. Serve on a hot dish with plenty of melted butter.

TENDERLOIN VAUDEVILLE STYLE

Broil small tenderloins. Put on a hot platter, placing a neatly poached egg on one side and a stuffed baked tomato on the other, covering all with Madeira sauce. This is a favorite supper dish.

BAKED PORTERHOUSE

Have steak thick. Put into Dutch oven with two ounces of butter, salt and pepper, and on top of the steak put three whole peeled tomatoes, one green pepper, two tablespoonfuls of Worcestershire sauce, same of mushrooms or tomato catsup, a little chopped parsley, and keep in the iron pot, basting frequently.

BROILED ENGLISH LOIN CHOPS

Broil over charcoal for twelve minutes or less, depending on the thickness. They should be slightly rare and full of juice. Cover with maitre d'hotel butter when broiled, and season. Maitre d'hotel butter is made by beating up a large spoonful of butter with the juice of half a lemon and a teaspoonful of minced parsley.

STEAK WITH MARROW

Parboil the marrow in salt water for ten minutes or longer. Spread small bits of toast with the marrow, then spread with mustard liberally, then lay small steaks, either fillet or small sirloins on the toast. Heat a little butter, squeeze a lemon into it and pour over all.

LOUIS LESCARBOURA CHEF DE CUISINE FT, PITT HOTEL Pittsburg, Pa.

Prior to coming to the Fort Pitt Hotel, Mr. Lescarboura was Chef at the Hotel Marlborough, New York City, and other prominent castern hotels, and was Entremetier at the famous "Delmonico's Cafe," New York City.

ENTRECOTE, COUNTRY STYLE

Season with salt and paprika and fry two minutes on each side, six thin sirloin steaks. Add to the pan three ounces of very finely chopped bacon and when the bacon is well done, add a tablespoonful of flour; mix well. Pour in a pint of thick cream; boil for ten minutes, add little by little one ounce of good butter; mix well. Pour over the sirloins and serve with boiled potatoes on the side.

LAMB CHOPS MIGNONETTE

Mix together on a plate, a cupful of bread crumbs, six chopped shallots, a half bean of garlic, one teaspoonful of chives, one teaspoonful of chopped parsley and one ounce of chopped Virginia ham. Season six lamb chops on both sides with salt and pepper; roll them in flour, dip them in eggs and finally roll them in this mixture. Slowly fry them for five minutes on each side. Serve with tomato sauce.

MUTTON CHOPS SUZANNE

Procure six well trimmed mutton chops. Season with salt and paprika. Fry them in butter for four minutes on each side, place them on a platter. Remove the fat from the pan. Place over the fire and pour in a gill of good sherry and a tablespoonful of good brandy. Add the finely shredded rind of half an orange and a tablespoonful of currant jelly. Stir well, let reduce to half. Remove the pan from the fire, add little by little one ounce of good butter, continually mixing. Pour this over the chops and garnish with fresh mushrooms sauted and browned potatoes.

SIRLOIN MINUTE—FT. PITT

Procure six steaks cut in the sirloin of half an inch thick. Season both sides with salt and pepper and cook them in butter for two minutes on each side. Place them on a platter. Finely slice twelve fresh mush-rooms and three green peppers, and fry in the steak pan until brown. Add a very little crushed garlic and spread it over the steaks.

FILLET MIGNON LYON

Cut in very small squares six potatoes, one green pepper and two onions. Fry them in butter until well browned. Season with salt. Remove the butter from the pan and keep hot and dry.

Season six fillet mignons on both sides with salt and pepper and broil them four minutes on each side. Place them on a platter, and put a piece of butter on top of each. Lay the potatoes over the mignons and serve.

SLICES OF TENDERLOIN-CHEZ-NOUS

Have twelve thin slices of tenderloin of beef and season on both sides with salt and pepper. Heat three tablespoonfuls of butter in a frying pan, add the slices and briskly cook a minute on each side. Remove the steaks, lay them on a platter and keep hot. Add to the pan twelve chopped fresh mushrooms and twelve chopped shallots and cook for two minutes. Pour in a good gill of white wine; let it reduce to half. Remove the pan from the fire and add bit by bit, two ounces of good butter, stirring while adding; add the juice of a quarter of a lemon, a half teaspoonful of chopped parsley and mix well. Pour over the slices and serve.

VEAL CHOPS BORDELAISE

Season and fry eight minutes on each side, six veal chops. Remove and keep on a dish. Take all the fat off the pan and pour in half a pint of good Claret with six finely chopped shallots and six finely chopped, fresh mushrooms. Reduce to one-third. Add little by little, two ounces of good butter to the sauce, while stirring constantly. Place two slices of beef marrow over each chop, sprinkle a little salt over, place them under the broiler for a few seconds; pour sauce over and serve.

VENISON STEAK DIANE

Season six small venison steaks on both sides with celery salt and paprika. Place them in a chafing dish with two tablespoonfuls of butter and cook them until well browned on both sides. Add the rind of an orange finely shredded, two tablespoonfuls of currant jelly, two tablespoonfuls of Sherry and two tablespoonfuls of rum and set on fire. Add twelve maraschino cherries, two slices of candied pineapple cut in squares, and a few squares of candied ginger. Cover the dish and let briskly cook for five minutes.

SIRLOIN STEAK CABARET

The cabaret sauce consists of four shallots, half a bean of garlic, and half a teaspoonful of chopped parsley. Chop these very fine and mix in one ounce of butter, a slight tablespoonful of extract of beef and the juice of a quarter of a lemon. When steak is cooked, spread this butter over.

EGGS BEARN

Scald and peel two fat green peppers. Cut them in two lengthwise, remove the seeds and fry them in a large pan with four slices of ham. Break over this four or eight eggs; season and fry them until cooked. Slide all into a dish, sprinkle a tablespoonful of good vinegar over the eggs and brown a piece of butter and pour over just before serving.

Low Lettarboura

THEIR STEAKS CHOPS& EGG SPECIALTIES

WALTER JURENZ CHEF DE CUISINE HOTEL GALVEZ Galveston, Tex.

Mr. Jurenz, prior to coming to this country, was with some of the finest hotels in Italy, France and England. He was Chef to Count Waldersee and his staff to China, the Red Lion Hotel at Henley on the Thames, England, Royal Crown Hotel, the Belgravia Hotel, and the Vienna Cafe, London, England. In this country, at Hotel La Salle, Hotel Congress and Annex, Chicago, and the Chicago yacht Club.

HOME MADE HASH OMELETTE

Cut up some chicken livers and the leavings of all kinds of meat cooked the day before—sausage, peppers, tongue, ham, etc. Saute in a pan with tomatoes, chopped onions, salt, pepper, paprika and a dash of Worcestershire sauce. Then mix in some tomato sauce. Stuff and garnish omelette with this.

VEAL CUTLET, GALVEZ SPECIAL

Take nice, thick veal cutlets, cut from the kernel of the leg, season with salt, pepper, and paprika; roll in flour and fry slowly in butter. After removing the cutlets from the pan, place in it in the order mentioned, one chopped onion, one chopped green pepper, two slices of boiled ham flaked, two slices of smoked ham flaked, a half dozen fresh mushrooms and two chopped dill pickles squeezed out, and saute for a few minutes. Add two spoonfuls of tomato sauce, two spoonfuls brown gravy, paprika, Worcestershire sauce and one cup of rich sour cream and boil for five minutes. Place the veal cutlets on a large platter and pour the dressing over them.

Wester Jureinz

JEAN JUILLARD
CHEF DE CUISINE
HOTEL ADOLPHUS
Dallas, Tex.

Mr. Juillard was formerly at Cafe Anglais, Paris; Hotel Hermitage, Monte Carlo; Hotel d'Angleterre, Venice; Savoy Hotel and Princess Restaurant, London; the Plaza, Belmont and Astor Hotels, New York City; Hotel La Salle, Rector's Cafe and University Club. Chicago.

EGGS MIMI PINSON

Cut the white meat of chicken and truffles in small dice; mix with a little cream sauce. Put this hash in the bottom of your cocotte; on it place a poached egg; add the sauce and a little grated cheese au gratin. Sauce is composed of thick tomato and cream sauce mixed.

OMELETTE DAVENPORT

Have some Olympia oysters, fresh shrimp and mushrooms mixed with a rich cream sauce. Roll your omelette, place a little of the above preparation in the center and turn on your dish. Then place a bouquet of asparagus tips on each end with a strip of red pepper, and put the remainder of the preparation around the omelette. Decorate with a few nice shrimps on top.

POACHED EGG—CAFE ANGLAIS

Have some fresh crab flake in cream in the bottom of a ramakin, next put the poached eggs in, cover the top with cream sauce. Finish with lobster butter, sliced lobster and cheese. Bake.

THANKSGIVING DAY OMELETTE

Take a few fresh chestnuts, remove both skins and cook with a little water and sugar. Be careful that they do not come to pieces. Cut an apple in small dice and cook it in butter; then mix with the chestnuts. Have some good mince-meat warmed up. Roll your omelette, season with sugar; place chestnut and apple preparation in the center and turn on to a very hot dish; place the mince-meat around and pour on a good glass of brandy. Light when served on the table.

EGGS MOLLETS BONAPARTE

Have small pattie shells, some six minute eggs, peeled; garnish the bottom of your patties with a little chicken and mushroom hash, then place your eggs in, cover with a good cream sauce with a little chopped chives.

FRIED EGGS CASTILLANNE

Four slices of salami, fried lightly on both sides; break your eggs on the salami; have some stewed tomatoes well seasoned and well reduced. Finish with a little chopped parsley and a little garlic. Place your egg on a dish and the tomatoes around.

EGG COQUELICOT

Butter a timbale mould, place a pimento around, then break a fresh egg into it. Place your mold in a pan with water and cook in the oven. When cooked, turn on a round piece of toast, and pour some light cream sauce over.

EGG CABARET

Make a poached egg, breaded and fried in deep grease; have some smothered onions and a little tomato sauce. Place the onions on dish with the eggs, put tomato sauce around and strips of bacon on top.

EGGS MOLLET A LA PHOCEENE

Take some fresh tomato, remove the seeds and cut in dice, put a little plive oil in frying pan, heat and throw your tomato in; add a little bouquet made of parsley, celery, a bay leaf, thyme, and two pieces of garlic. Cook until puree and strain. Have some French cepes or some fresh mushrooms sliced and fried in a little butter. When ready, add a little chopped garlic and parsley. Braise a little chopped onions, add a handful of rice seasoned well, cook with consomme or chicken broth. Take some fresh eggs, boil them six minutes and peel. Place your rice in the center of the dish, then add the eggs and cover with the tomato sauce. Place the cepes or mushrooms around same.

EGG PETIT TRIANON

Take some hard, ripe tomatoes, cut the tops off and scoop the inside out. Have some ham truffles and fresh mushrooms chopped fine. Place it in the bottom of your tomato, then break an egg into it, sprinkle with a little chopped chives; cover with cream sauce, grated cheese and bake. Serve with cream sauce.

OMELETTE JURASIENNE

Have some blanched salt pork, a few diced potatoes and some spring onions cooked; mix with your eggs and roll up the omelette while soft.

OMELETTE JAMAICAINE

Take the juice of a can of pineapple, place it in a sauce pan on the range; when boiling add a little cornstarch, melted with a little water. This will make a good, thick syrup. Take two slices of pineapple and a banana cut in dice and throw them into the sryrup. Roll up your sweet omelette, place a little of the fruit in and turn onto a dish and garnish with the rest of the fruit. Place in the center, a nice skinned preserved fig. Pour on a port wine glassful of Jamaica. Light when on the table. Use the sliced pineapple which is left for fritters and serve with them the same syrup as above additional of kirsch.

THEIR STEAKS CHOPS& EGG SPECIALTIES

PETER BONA
CHEF DE CUISINE
HOTEL
CHAMBERLAIN
(Old Point Comfort)
Fortress Monroe, Va.
Mr. Bona's history
since he arrived in this country is brief: three years at the Waldorf

Astoria, New York

City, in various capacities in the kitchen.

VEAL CUTLET A LA ZINGARA

Cook the veal cutlet in butter and at the same time prepare a slice of raw ham cut to the shape of the cutlet, and likewise tossed in butter. Dish the cutlet and place the slice of ham upon it and surround with a few tablespoonfuls of Zingara sauce.

ZINGARA SAUCE

Reduce a few tablespoonfuls of white wine and mushrooms, cooking liquor to half. Add a fifth of a pint of half glace, two tablespoonfuls of tomato sauce, one tablespoonful of veal stock, one ounce of julienne of ox tongue, mushrooms and truffles and set to boil a few seconds.

EGGS A LA ROSSINI

Take a large shirred egg, dish and butter it, break in the eggs and place in oven until barely set. Make a border of fried chicken livers cut in dice around the eggs, cover the liver with Perigueux Sauce, return to the oven until the eggs are set and serve.

EGGS SCRAMBLED A L'ITALIENNE

Make some rissoto and add to it some minced duckling livers in Madeira sauce: make a border of this on the serving dish, place the scrambled eggs in the center, pour a little thick tomato sauce at each end of the dish and serve.

SIRLOIN STEAK WITH MUSHROOMS

Season the steak, about a half a pound each, if for one person, and fry in butter. Dish in the form of a crown. Drain the mushrooms, cooking liquor and adding thereto a proportional quantity of mushroom sauce. Set to boil for five minutes, then pour the sauce with the mushrooms in the midst of the crown or circle of steaks.

LAMB CHOPS A LA HAMPTON ROADS

Grill the chops and at the same time prepare as many bread crumb croutons as there are chops and of the same shape as the chops. Fry the croutons in butter and coat them with foie gras puree: place a grilled chop on each coated crouton and a slice of truffle on the kernel of each chop. By means of a decorating bag cover the chop with a parmesan souffle. Dish in a circle and place in the oven for five minutes so that the souffle may poach. Remove from the oven, garnish the center with asparagus heads, and cover with butter.

Cut six slices of tomatoes and six slices of cucumber a quarter of an inch thick, roll in flour and fry in butter. Place one tomato and cucumber upon each other, put on top a poached egg and cover with a Bearnaise sauce.

OMELETTE MENAGER

Beat up twelve eggs, half a cup of cream, salt and pepper and chopped chives. Cut four breakfast rolls in very thin slices and fry in butter; pour the eggs over it and cook like an omelette.

MUTTON OR LAMB CHOP SIGNORA

Split six large chops and stuff with the same ingredients as used to make chicken croquettes. Then bread the prepared chops and fry in butter slowly for about twenty minutes. Garnish with timbale of rice periqueu (earne de truffes). Serve cream sauce separate.

SIRLOIN STEAK AMERICAINE

Cut and split a four pound piece of sirloin. Broil for thirty-five minutes; garnish with Yorkshire pudding, corn fritters, Obrien potatoes and stuffed tomatoes and serve with Colbert sauce separate.

YORKSHIRE PUDDING

Three eggs, a pinch of salt, a little grated nutmeg, about one pint of milk and half a pound of flour. Make in the same manner as a hot cake batter. Allow beef fat to get very hot in pudding or roast pan. Then pour the pudding batter into pan and bake in hot oven about fifteen minutes.

CORN FRITTERS

Scrape the corn from six good-sized ears, mix with three eggs, a quarter of a pound of flour, a half a cup of milk, a half a teaspoonful of baking powder. Drop a tablespoonful at a time into hot butter and fry brown on both sides.

Obrien Potatoes

Cut in small squares two raw potatoes; fry in butter and then add one pimento cut in same manner as the potatoes. Salt and pepper.

STUFFED TOMATOES

Take center from six small tomatoes, then stuff with a puree of fresh mushrooms and bake for fifteen minutes.

Tournedo McMahon

Cut six pieces nice tenderloin of beef, well seasoned and fry in butter in an earthen dish (cocotte) for about ten minutes. Then take from the fire, free them from butter and garnish with olivette potatoes, small fried medallion of goose liver, and some sliced truffles. Pour over it a quart of Madeira sauce, put on fire for one minute more and serve in the same dish.

LAMB CHOPS COLONIAL

Take some French lamb chops, saute and garnish with braized celery stuffed with rice and chicken forcement and chili powder. Finish with rolled up Westphalia ham broiled; pepper sauce on the side.

VENISON CHOPS ROCKY MOUNTAIN

Saute chops, garnish with stuffed mushrooms and chestnuts glaced; jelly on the side.

STEAK DASNOIT

Take one quarter each of veal, pork, beef and fresh bread crumbs; one egg, and season to taste, also add a little chopped onion. Form in cutlet shape and broil medium well done. Garnish with chicken livers and fresh mushrooms. Trim with cress.

MUTTON CHOPS, ERIN STYLE

Broil chops and garnish with mashed potatoes placed in mould. Leave a hollow in the center and place there a good sized piece of butter. Now place in the hollow, yellow mashed turnips. Heat well and serve slices of Irish bacon on top.

STEAK FLORIDANA

Take four small tenderloin steaks, about half a pound each, put in a frying pan with three ounces of fresh butter and two slices of onions. Brown steaks on both sides and when done as desired remove and put them on a platter. Saute the onions to a golden color. Scald and peel four fresh tomatoes, cut them in square pieces and add them to the onions and saute about four minutes longer. Put the onions and tomatoes over the steak and surround with twelve fritters.

FRITTERS

Take three whole eggs, three ounces cooked ham cut up in squares, two green peppers peeled, cut up and blanched in hot fat for one minute, one cup cooked corn cut off the ear, one pinch of nutmeg and one pinch of salt. Mix together and add one teaspoonful of baking powder. Fry fritters in butter to a golden brown color on both sides using one heaping tablespoonful of batter for each fritter. Serve with steak.

EGGS AL ASPINWALL

Choose four large round green peppers, blanch in hot fat for one minute, sprinkle with salt, peel and let cool. Cut up fine, one dozen shallots, put in a saute pan with one tablespoonful of sweet oil and saute for three minutes. Then take twelve good sized fresh tomatoes, cut up and add to the same mixture. Let all cook for twenty minutes and put aside. Now wash five ounces of rice, parboil for eight minutes and drain in colander. Cut up into small dice two ounces of raw ham, put in a sauce pan with two ounces of butter and fry light brown. Add the rice in one pint of white broth seasoned with a pinch of paprika, stirring often to prevent its burning; cover and boil for twenty-five minutes. Put aside but keep hot. Now prepare the four peppers for filling: cut off the tops about one inch, take seeds out carefully without breaking the peppers and put in about a half inch of the first mixture mentioned. Break one raw egg into each pepper, cover the egg with the same mixture and sprinkle over the pepper some Parmesan cheese and melted butter. Put in hot oven for about ten minutes, but don't cook the eggs too much. Take a mold a trifle larger than the peppers, fill with rice and put on a good-sized platter. Carefully arrange the peppers on the bed of rice, pour one cup of tomato sauce around it and serve.

Tomato Sauce

Cut up one onion and two ounces of butter, put in a sauce pan and fry to a golden color. Add four large ripe tomatoes, one tablespoonful of sugar, one pinch of salt and one pint of white broth and let boil a half hour. Dilute one tablespoonful of cornstarch with two of cold water. Add these to the contents and stir around quickly. Put to one side, let stand two minutes and strain through a sieve.

OMELETTE TILLY—Breakfast Dish

Beat three eggs and two tablespoonfuls of cream together. Take one ounce of Virginia Ham, cut it into small cubes, sprinkle with a pinch of grated Parmesan cheese and a little chives; season and mix together with the eggs. Mix the whole in an omelette pan and fry to a nice golden color. Garnish with asparagus tips au gratin (take one dozen asparagus tips, lay them on a buttered shirred egg dish and cover the tips with cream sauce; then sprinkle a little cheese and melted butter on top and place in a hot oven until done). Serve around the omelette.

TENDERLOIN STEAK, GOURMET

Cut tenderloin steak one and a half inches thick. Prepare one teaspoonful of shallots chopped fine, one teaspoonful of fresh mushrooms chopped fine and six to eight fresh oysters. Saute together in butter and add a pinch of fresh parsley. Split the tenderloin steak on one side and fill it with the above preparation, placing it in the center. Place the steak on a broiler and cook medium rare. Serve with Maitre d'Hotel potatoes. Sirloin steak may also be prepared in the same way.

VEAL STEAK, Prince Henry

Take the heart of the leg, also called the schnitzel part, cut a steak about one inch thick, place in a frying pan, season with salt and paprika and fry until a golden color. Cut up some salt pork, one small shallot and six to eight sardelles. Put them in the pan with the steak and allow to simmer three or four minutes. Add one cup sour cream and let simmer for about eight or ten minutes. When steak is done, arrange on plate, strain the sauce and pour over the steak. Garnish with chateau potatoes and asparagus tips.

EGGS VIRGINIA

Make one large round corn fritter. Cut up in small dice one cooked breast of fowl and one-third as much cooked Virginia ham. Place the above in some good cream sauce, season to taste and let come to a boil. Place corn fritter on a dish and cover with the chicken and ham. Place on top of this one poached egg. Serve hot.

EGGS MAUD ADAMS

Cut one fresh tomato in half, season with salt and pepper and turn in flour and then in egg wash and fresh bread crumbs. Fry in clarified butter to a golden color. Serve at once.

EGGS-BULL MOOSE

Prepare some Oyster Bay asparagus with rich cream sauce and season to taste. Cut some egg plant about the size of a regular fish cake. Dip in beaten egg and roll in fresh bread crumbs. Fry in deep grease to a golden color. Scoop out the egg plant with a parisienne cutter and insert therein the asparagus tips. On top of this place a poached egg and cover the whole with cream or Hollandaise sauce. Garnish on top with a disc the size of a twenty-five cent piece cut out of a thin slice of truffle. Serve hot.

EGGS-BROADWAY

Cut up some raw Virginia ham and green peppers in small dice and saute in butter. When done, add one spoonful of corn stewed in cream. Place all in a shirred egg dish, break two eggs on top, cover with heavy cream sauce and sprinkle with grated swiss cheese. Place in a hot oven and bake till done to a brown color. Serve at once.

PAPRIKA STEAK

Prepare a two-pound sirloin, season with salt and pepper and one-half teaspoonful of Hungarian Paprika all of which should be rubbed in thoroughly. Place the steak in a casserole with some good clarified butter, two sliced onions and two ounces of salt pork. Let braise for about five minutes until both sides are browned. Then put in one glass of sour cream, one gill of good Mosel wine and one spoonful of rich tomato sauce. Let boil for about ten to fifteen minutes more with the casserole covered. Take out the steak and place on a platter. Strain over the sauce and garnish top of steak with a few sardelles. Surround the whole with six small tomatoes baked in butter.

BORDELAISE FOR STEAKS

Simmer three minced shallots or one onion—the former should be used if a correct sauce is desired—until the onions are tender, but do not brown. Add half a wine glass of Claret, a pint of brown sauce, a crushed clove of garlic and ome chopped parsley, also butter the size of an egg Strain the marrow of a beef bone which has been cooked half an hour in salt water. Pour over the steak which has been broiled as usual, either rare or medium, as preferred.

DUXELLE OF FINE HERBS SAUCE

Have four spoonfuls of minced pork and butter—half and half—simmering in a sauce pan. Add three spoonfuls of minced shallot, a clove of crushed garlie, frying together, but not discoloring. Add a scant half cup of fresh mushrooms, chopped coarsely. Simmer for ten minutes, when the moisture iron the mushrooms is absorbed. Cook slowly so as not to brown the onions or shallots, which ever you use. Add a tearpoonful of minced parsley, chopped as fine as can be. Last of all, a large cup of clear brown gravy, strained, to which add a small glass of Madeira.

MUSHROOM SAUCE

Trim and wash, removing sand and soil. Parboil in boiling water for five minutes, using just enough water to barely cover. Then add salt, butter and white pepper, continuing until boiled tender. Thicken with flour. Add more butter just before serving, or if desired with white meat, add cream instead. To a pint of sauce add the juice of half a lemon, just before serving.

ITALIAN SAUCE

Take one onion or six small shallot onions and mince very fine. Simmer in a wine glass of Sherry, until dry, but not discolored. Add a small can of minced mushrooms and two cups of brown gravy and a pony of Sherry, seasoning with salt and pepper.

HAZELNUT BUTTER

Brown four ounces of butter slightly, skimming off the foam that arises. Pour off, using only the clear part. Season with salt, pepper and lemon juice. Strain through a fine strong whatever it is to be served with. M
